1. Title: Dear Grant,I mailed a packet to you on Friday, which will perhaps reach you tomorrow.Which child of Zachariah Barker do you descend from? Do you know the maiden name of Zachariah's wife, Celia? To me, all evidence points to the likelihood that she was a SHORT, daughter of Needham Short.Needham Short was the son of Landman Short of Wake Co., NC. Landman had several daughters and four other sons: Sion, Burrell [Burwell], Josiah & Landman Jr. Burrell Short was the father of my husband's 2nd great grandfather, Young Short, who married Roda Barker. As I wrote to you before, I think Roda was a sister of your Zachariah Barker.About 1804 Needham Short, with other family members, left Wake Co., NC & went of Barren Co., KY. Your Celia [?] Barker, according to the census, was born in 1804 IN KENTUCKY. On the 1810 Barren Co. census, Needham Short has [among other children] two females under 10.Needham Short & his brother, Josiah left Kentucky about 1815. In 1820, Needham Short was living right next door to Lewis Barker in Humphreys, TN. Josiah Short lived a few households away. Needham Short has [among others], one female age 10-16.The Short & Barker families were neighbors back in Wake Co., NC and possibly already had an extended family relationship in the past. There was a Burwell Barker in Wake Co., NC, of the same generation as Lewis Barker. Burwell Barker was not Lewis' brother, but likely was a relative. Was Burrell [Burwell] Short, brother of Needham Short, named for this Burwell Barker?In 1830 Needham Short is still residing in Humphreys, TN, a short distance from Lewis Barker. Young[er] Short is also here, married with three young children under the age of 10.The clincher here, though, is that Zachariah and Celia Barker named their second son, Needham. There are over a dozen Barker men, listed in Wake Co., NC--none of them are named, Needham. It seems logical to assume that Needham Barker was named for someone in Celia's family--I believe this someone was Celia's father, Needham Short.If I have this figured out correctly, Celia [Short?] Barker and Young Short were first cousins. They married siblings: Celia Short[?] married Zachariah Barker and Roda Barker married Young Short. A much later death certificate of one of Roda's children, gave Roda's maiden name as Barker.While all of this does not prove that Celia Barker was a daughter of Needham Short, nothing found so far rules out that relationship.Marilyn Short, JR. Further, there appeared to be numerous men with the name Landman Short, living simultaneously in the southeastern and mid-western parts of the United States, within a 125-year time span.

There is a network of persons studying the various Short families that resided in Virginia and North Carolina in the 1600's and 1700's. These researchers maintain an active correspondence on the Short Rootsweb, but no paper trail has been found which links these early Virginia families together. I am deeply indebted to cousin Marilyn Owen for the exhaustive research she has done on the Shorts of Virginia, North Carolina, Kentucky, and Tennessee, and for the collaboration of Esta Anderson, Dana King, Steven Short, Glenda Wolfe, the late Marilyne Short Payne, Roberta Abrams, Kay Nance Linn, Sarah Bone, Vicky Seibel, Ruby Caroline Reddin, Willie Ray Short, and Jim Short.

We have reduced the number of men with the name of Landman Short to SIX. This is because we believe that some of the men who lived in various states were actually the same person. In order to differentiate among these men when they are being discussed, I have assigned identifying numbers or phrases to each of them. Although much effort has been made to find a link between the first three men listed (who are related), and the second three men (who appear to be related), we have found no evidence to date (other than their first names) that the two groups are connected. Landman Short, Sr.

The first three men, who were related to each other, are:

1. Landman Short, Sr., born ca. 1737, is the oldest man we know with this name. He served in the Edgecombe County, NC, Militia in the 1750's, patented 700 acres in Johnston County, NC, in 1762, and appeared on Wake County, NC records from 1771 until 1804. Between December 1778 and April 1780 Landman acquired 1,880 acres in Wake County. He transferred several parcels of land to men believed to be his adult children. The particular deed book for this time period has been lost, but the index to the deed book has survived, mentioning only the names of grantor and grantee. In May of 1802, Landman Short (Sr.) transferred land to Josiah, Needham, and Burwell Short, proved by Nathaniel Jones. In November of 1804 Landman Short, Sr., transferred land to Landman Short, Jr., proved by George Crowder. In 1797 Landman Short (Sr.) served as security for the second marriage of Sion Short. Based on these documents, is assumed that the sons Landman Short, Sr., were Sion Short, Needham Short, Josiah Short, Burwell/Burrel Short, and Landman Short, Jr. All but Burrel Short, who went to White County, TN, were in Barren County, KY, by 1810. There is some evidence that Landman Sr. may have lived long enough to accompany his sons to Barren County, KY, because an early Tax List (about 1807-1811) in Barren County, KY, exempts one Landman Short from paying taxes. Exemptions were usually given to persons of advanced age.

2. Landman Short, Jr., born 24 April 1782, in NC, is assumed to be the son (and probably youngest child) of Landman Short, Sr. He dropped the 'd' in his given name and went by Lanmon. Lanmon was in Barren Co, KY, in 1810, Monroe County, KY, in 1820; Allen County, KY, in 1830; and Cole County, MO, in 1840. He died on 27 Dec 1862, in Cole County, MO, and his will named his wife, Elizabeth (Carpenter), ten children, and one foster daughter.

3. Landman Short, III, was b. ca. 1800-02 in NC. Because of his age, and the fact that he was first taxed in 1823 in Monroe County, KY, along with Sion Short (while the other Short brothers had moved on), he is assumed to be the son of Sion Short and Sion's 2nd wife, Dicey Ashe. Landman III married Nancy Pare/Parr, daughter of William Pare/Parr, also of Monroe County, KY. By 1830, Landman III had moved to Hardeman County, TN, and by 1850, he was in Lafayette County, MS. He died there and his will was probated in Lafayette County, MS, on 12 October 1865. He and Nancy were the parents of nine known children.

The last three men appear to be related.

4. Landman (of Westmoreland) Short, was the second oldest man with this name, so designated because records for him are found in Westmoreland County, VA. He married Susannah Tait on 28 May 1793 in Westmoreland County, with William Bettisworth, security. This Landman made his will on 12 October 1799, naming his wife, Susannah, step-son Kennady (sic), and three sons, Landman Mitchel, James Kennedy, and Thomas, all presumed to be surnamed Short. Executors of the will were William Short Jett and Baldwin Lee, Esq.'s. Witnesses were Robert Currin, Harriott Johnson, and Fanny Cannaday.

5. Landman Mitchel Short, son of the above Landman (of Westmoreland) Short, was probably born no earlier than 1793, if Susannah Tait/Tate was his mother. I believe he is a good choice to be the same person as Landman Short who married Nancy Gobble on 9 March 1814 in Washington County, VA. She was the daughter of John George Gobble, b. 17 February 1758 in Montgomery County, PA, and his wife, Elizabeth Linder.

On 15 February 1814, Landman Short was appointed guardian of James Short and Thomas Short in Washington County, VA, with securities Elijah Gillenwater, Cannaday Tate, and George Gobble. It is unclear whether Landman, brother (and guardian) of James and Thomas Short, was a full brother. If he was the son of Susannah Tait, he would barely be 21 years old at the time he was appointed guardian.

Researchers of this family believe that this Landman Short is also the same person as Landman Short who moved to Indiana by 1820. He married 2nd Lydia Like / Lyke on 28 January 1836 in Rush County, IN. Landman and Lydia were enumerated on 1840 and 1850 Rush County, IN, census records, and in 1860 in Decatur County, IL. In 1850 he and Lydia reported their ages as 62 and 33, respectively. In 1860, their ages were reported as 83 and 44.

My assumption that Landman of Rush County, IN, was the son of Landman and Susannah Tait Short of Westmoreland County, VA, was based solely on the fact that near Landman

ANALYSIS OF EVIDENCE
RODA BARKER, DAUGHTER OF LEWIS BARKER

INTRODUCTION

Roda Barker (Gen 7) is the daughter of Lewis Barker (Gen 8). The connection between these two generations is established through an analysis of evidence, as historical records naming them father and daughter do not exist.
all available records have been throughly researched.

Rebecca Short (Gen 6) is the daughter of Young Short and Roda Barker. Rebecca is enumerated in her parent's household on the 1850 Federal Census in Tishomingo County, Mississippi, as is her brother Calvin.[1] Rebecca married William Roberts on 23 Feb 1853 in Tishomingo County[2]. On December 27, 1867, the heirs of Young Short filed a petition with the Tishomingo, MS Probate Court[3]. The document named the children of the deceased heirs, and each of the living heirs and their spouses, including Rebecca A. Roberts and her husband William Roberts (Gen 6), Calvin Short, and Sarah Brackin and her husband Prior Brackin. Roda Short, the wife of Young Short, was not named in this petition, which indicates she was already deceased by the time the petition was filed. Roda's maiden name is confirmed to be Barker on the death certificates of Roda's son Calvin[4] and her daughter Sarah[5].

RODA BARKER (GEN 7)

Roda Barker Short (Gen 7), was born about 1806 in Tennessee, and died sometime before 27 Dec 1867 probably in Tishomingo County, MS. Young Short was born about 1797 in North Carolina and died in 1866 in Tishomingo County, MS.[2,3] The marriage date for Roda Barker and Young Short is estimated to be about 1826 in Tennessee, based upon the birth year and birthplace of their first child Lewis Short. Younger Short is enumerated as the head of household on the 1830 Humphreys County, Tennessee federal census. His wife is not named, therefore it is necessary to examine additional records to determine if this is the correct household for Young Short and his wife Roda Barker.

The 1820 Tennessee Federal Census records were analyzed in order to determine where Roda Barker and Young Short (Gen 7) would have lived around the time of their marriage, as well as the names of their parents. Roda would have been about 14 years of age in 1820. For all of the Barker families enumerated on the 1820 Tennessee federal census, only six families had daughters that were between 10 and 15 years of age.

Young Short would have been about 23 years old in 1820. For all of the Short families enumerated on the 1820 Tennessee census, only six families had sons between 16 and 25 years of age.

The Short and Barker census records were compared to find the common counties for the two families. Humphreys County is the only county in Tennessee where a son male the same age as Young Short and a ~~daughter~~ female the same age as Roda Barker lived. The census image reveals that Needham Short and Lewis Barker lived next door to each other in 1820.

LEWIS BARKER (GEN 8)

In 1820, Lewis Barker was enumerated in Humphreys County, Tennessee as being over age 45. Lewis Barker was not found on the surviving 1810 Tennessee federal census records, where he would have certainly been living if his daughter Roda was born in Tennessee in about 1806. Lewis Barker's residence is confirmed by Humphreys County deed records, which document that Lewis sold a slave on January 24, 1810.[7]

In 1800, there are only three men named Lewis Barker enumerated on the federal census, living in Chesterfield County, SC (over 45 years of age), Wake County, NC (over 45 years of age), and Grafton County, NH (over 45 years of age). On the 1790 Federal Census, there was only one man named Lewis Barker on the federal census, and he was living in Wake County, NC.

It is certain that the Lewis Barker living in Humphreys County, Tennessee in 1810 is the same person as the Lewis Barker in Wake County, North Carolina in 1800. The migration path from North Carolina to this part of Tennessee is easily accomplished by following the Jonesboro Road from Raleigh, NC (Wake County) to Knoxville, TN.[8] It would be a very short distance to travel from Knoxville to the Tennessee River[9], which provides a direct route to Western Tennessee and Humphreys County. The Tennessee River forms the western boundary of Humphreys County, TN.[9] Lewis Barker first purchased land in Wake County in 1780[10], and by November 1792 received a land grant for 200 acres of land in the Buckhorn District of Wake County, NC. Lewis sold this land in early October 1805, and by 1810 was living in Humphreys County, TN.[11]

Wake County, NC will records provide the name of Lewis Barker's father and the name of his wife. The will of Joel Barker (page 138) was recorded 20 Mar 1799, and names Joel Barker's son as Lewis Barker. A witness to the will was Aaron Read. Aaron Read Pendrey's will (page 166) was recorded on 20 Apr 1799, and names Aaron's son-in-law Lewis Barker and wife Mary, and also names Lewis Barker as executor.[12]

SHORT FAMILY

In addition to the straightforward migration path between Wake County, NC and Humphreys County, TN, additional records confirm that Lewis Barker is the same person living in both counties. Needham Short (over 45 years of age) living next door to Lewis Barker in 1820 in Humphreys County, Tennessee, is the only person with this name on the 1820 federal census. In 1810, Needham is living in Barren County, Kentucky (aged 26 to 44), and is living in Wake County, NC in 1800 (aged 16 to 25).

Wake County, NC records reveal that Needham Short, his brother Burwell Short, and their father Landman Short knew Lewis Barker and other Barker family members in North Carolina. The records connecting the Short and Barker families are as follows:

- 4 June 1771, Wake County, NC: Landman Short, Overseer[13]
- Dec 1772, Wake County, NC: Landman Short and William Barker, road juror[13]
- 5 Oct 1784, Wake County, NC: Landman Short, Lewis Barker, and William Barker, Jr., purchasers at the Christopher Woodward estate sale[14]
- 28 Oct 1798, Wake County, NC: Landman Short, Needham Short, Josiah Short, and Sion Short,
- purchasers at the Hardy Johnson estate sale[14]
- August 1801, Wake County, NC: Burwell Short, Lewis Barker, Sr., Sion Short, William Barker, Jr., and William Short named among those owing a debt to the estate of Britain Sanders[14]
- Early 1804, Wake County, NC: Landman Short transferred land to Josiah Short, Needham Short and Burrell Short. Later that year, Landman Short transferred land to Landman Short, Jr.[15]
- Aug 1806, Wake County, NC: Needham Short, Sihon (Sion) Short, and Lewis Barker, Sr. named on the delinquent tax list[15]
- 30 Oct 1809, Barren County, KY: Needham and Josiah Short granted power of attorney to Cale Hough Brown to recover a reward for apprehending two murder suspects[16]
- 18 Sep 1809, Barren County, KY: Landman Short was a witness to a deed[16]
- 13 August 1810, White County, TN (bordering Humphrey's County): Mary Short, administratrix of Burrell Short reported on the sale of Burrell Short's property.[17]
- 21 Oct 1822, White County, TN: Young Short, Jonathan Short, Burrell Short, appointed to work on road.[18]

CONCLUSION

Young Short was born about 1797 in North Carolina and Roda Barker (Gen 7) was born in Tennessee in about 1806. Based on the age of their first child, they were married about 1826 in Tennessee. The evidence indicates that the Short and Barker families lived next to each other in Humphreys County, Tennessee and had an association with one another for many years in Tennessee and in Wake County, North Carolina.

Burrell Short moved his family to White Co., TN where he died in 1810. Records in White County indicate that Burrell's children included sons Burrell, Jonathan, and Young. Needham Short was living next door to Lewis Barker in Humphreys County, Tennessee in 1820. It is logical to think that Young Short, an unmarried man, would have traveled from White County to Humphreys County in order to live with his uncle Needham Short following the death of Young's father, Burrell. The close proximity between Needham Short and Lewis Barker would have placed Young Short in the situation to meet and marry Roda Barker.

Young Short died late in February 1867 in Tishomingo Co., MS. His heirs petitioned to sell the land in his estate and all of his children were listed. Young and Roda Barker Short named their first son Lewis, which would be for Roda's father, Lewis Barker. Their second son was named Burrell, which would be for Young's father Burrell Short. They also named children Jonathan (a Short family name) and Mary (the name of the mothers of both Young and Roda). 1850 census records show that Young and Roda's first five children, Lewis, Burrell, and Rebecca, Jonathan, and Lucinda were born in TN. Roda was also born in TN.

The strong evidence found in the 1820 Tennessee federal census records, other available records, geographical proximity and interaction of involved persons, and naming patterns, lead to the logical conclusion that Lewis Barker is the father of Roda Barker.

Meanwhile, Back In Humphreys County, Tennessee

Lewis is on the 1820 Federal Census for Humphreys County. Also in the household, among others, are two females age 10-16. As will be seen later, Roda Barker Short was born in 1806, so would be 14 years in 1820. The only other Barker on this census is Jane Barker. She had three daughters, all under 10 years, therefore born no earlier than 1810. /23 Needham Short is living next door to Lewis Barker in 1820. /24

Lewis Barker and Needham Short are living near each other in 1830. /25

Younger (Young) Short is on the 1830 Federal Census for Humphreys County, TN along with Lewis Barker. Young's wife is listed as age 20-29, which would put her being born 1801-1810, and in the range to be Roda Barker. There are two males and a female are all under the age of 10. /26

Time to Move On

Young Short was in Tishomingo County, MS when he secured a note in the amount of $400.00 owed by Milo W. Barker on 16 March 1839. /27 Milo W. Barker was living in Tippah Co., MS in 1860 and gave NC as his place of birth. /28

Young and his family are shown on the 1850 Tishomingo County census. /29 This census shows: Young Short, 53, m, Farmer, $800, b NC;
Roda Short, 44, f, b TN; (born ca 1806)
Ann Short, 21, f, b TN, at school;
Lucinda Short, 15, f, b TN, at school;
Martha Short, 12, f, b MS, at school;
Albert Short, 10, m, b MS, at school;
Calvin Short, 8, m, b MS, at school;
Paralee Short, 6, f, b MS, at school;
Elizabeth Short, 4, f, b MS, deaf & dumb;
James Short, 2, m, b MS;
Jonathan Short, 16, m, b TN.

Other Shorts in Tishomingo in 1850: B [Burrell], age 22 and Lewis, age 24, two older sons of Young and Roda. Both men were born in TN, and their ages fit the range of the two males counted with Young Short on the 1830 Benton County, TN census.

Two additional children (Sarah and Mary) were born after the 1850 census. An exhaustive search of the 1860 census for Tishomingo County, MS for Young Short has been unsuccessful. It appears that the census taker failed to record his family. However, the additional children are named in Young Short's probate record.

Young Short died in the latter part of the year 1866. On 27 Dec 1867, the heirs of Young Short petitioned the court for sale of land and division. Roda Barker Short was dead because she is not named in the estate record. Heirs named were children of Young Short: Burrell, Rebecca A., Lucinda, Martha, Albert, Calvin, Paralee, Elizabeth, Sarah, Mary, and J. M. (James). Also named were grandchildren who were the children of Lewis Short and Jonathan Short, both deceased. /30

Conclusion

Roda was a Barker as proven by the death certificates of two of her children.

The Short and Barker families were neighbors in Wake Co., NC. Needham Short, Landman Short, Josiah Short, Sion Short, and Burrell Short are the names found in court and land records that place them in close proximity with Lewis Barker and his Barker kin who lived in Wake County from the early 1770's to the early 1800's.

In the early 1800's, Needham Short, Landman Short, and Josiah Short are found in the records of Barren Co., KY.

Burrell Short moved his family to White Co., TN where he died in 1810. Records in White County, TN indicate that his children included sons named Burrell, Jonathan, and Young. The three men were ordered to work on a road crew in White Co., TN on 21 Oct 1822.

Meanwhile, Lewis Barker moved his family from Wake Co., NC to Humphreys Co., Tennessee before 1806. By 1820, Lewis had two females in his household who were 10-16 years of age. Roda Barker was born ca 1806 in TN as shown on the 1850 Federal census for Tishomingo Co., MS and would be 14 years of age in 1820. The only other Barker in Humphreys Co., TN in 1820 was a female named Jane who had three girls under the age of 10 in her household. Their births would have been no earlier than 1811. There was no other candidate in Humphreys County to be Roda's parent.

By 1830, Young Short was the head of a household in Humphreys Co., TN. In his household were two males and one female all under the age of 10, and one female of 20-26 years of age (per the 1850 census, Roda was born in 1806, so would be 24 in 1830).

Needham Short, having left Kentucky, was also living in Humphreys Co. in 1830, next door to Lewis Barker, as he had done since 1820. It is logical to think that Young Short, a single man when he left White Co., TN and arrived in Humphreys Co., TN, would live with his uncle Needham putting him in the situation to meet and marry Roda Barker.

Young Short moved his family to Tishomingo Co., MS and on 29 Mar 1839, he secured a loan of $400.00 that was owed to him by Milo W. Barker, who was probably a cousin of Roda Barker. Milo was born in NC and his wife was born in TN. Historically, family members traveled together as they moved from place to place. Also, it is logical that it would have to be someone well acquainted with Young Short for him to loan such a large amount.

Young Short died late in February 1867 in Tishomingo Co., MS. His heirs petitioned to sell the land in his estate and all of his children are listed. Young and Roda Barker Short named their first son Lewis, which would be for Roda's father, Lewis Barker. Their second son was named Burrell, which would be for Young's father Burrell Short. They also named children Jonathan (a Short family name) and Mary (the name of the mothers of both Young and Roda). 1850 census records show that Young and Roda's first five children, Lewis, Burrell, and Rebecca, Jonathan, and Lucinda were born in TN. Roda was also born in TN.

Available records, geographical proximity and interaction of involved persons, naming patterns, and there being no other candidate in Humphreys Co., TN to be her parent in 1820 lead to the logical conclusion that Lewis Barker is the father of Roda Barker.

He represented Humphreys County in the state House of Representatives in 1837-1839 and Benton County in 1843 and 1847-1849. He was a firm supporter of Andrew Jackson and a leading citizen of the county for many years. The Wyly family owned more land than any other family has ever owned in the county, some 30,000 acres before 1860.

Stephen Congo Pavatt (1808-1863) was a native of Sumner County who was educated and trained in law, which he practiced in Waverly and Huntingdon before moving to Camden in 1846. He served in the state House of Representatives 1833-1837, the state Senate 1851-1853, and chancellor of the Sixth Chancery District 1854-1861. He was a man who cherished the classics and was credited with naming Waverly, based on Sir Walter Scott's Waverly novels. Waverly became the county seat of Humphreys County in 1838. Pavatt was said to have been a man of great dignity of bearing and possessed unusual legal talents. The Pavatts lived for many years on their large farm at the confluence of Eagle Creek with the Tennessee River, long called Pavatt's Landing.

Colonel William Pitts Morris (1817-1893), also a native of Sumner County, clerked as a young man before moving to Camden. He served as county court clerk, 1843-1852; in the state House of Representatives 1861-1862, 1879; in the state Senate 1883-1884, and was a successful merchant. An active Mason and Methodist, Colonel Morris was a leading citizen of Camden for many years.

Among other settlers in the valley of Beaverdam Creek were John Sarrett, a Revolutionary War veteran, Daniel Settle, John and William Pafford, Burwell Lashlee, James S. Sayles, John Penick, Wyatt Arnold and his sons, John B. Carson, Cooper Melton, David and Margaret Cuff, and Americus Vespuci Vick. Settlers in the valley of Cypress Creek were Benjamin Holland, William Thompson, James Lee, Rhubin Bridges, Joseph Cowell, Moses Jordan, Joshua House, Captain Lilly Crocker, Charles Williams, Lewis and Zachariah Barker, Colonel Thomas Jones, Jacob Hicks, and Alexander Bivens.

McDaniel, William Martin McAuley, Henry Sawyer, William Hill, George and Hegwood Francisco, Captain Robert Washington Ayres, Henry C. Camp, Dr. Jeptha Williams, and Winston K. Aden.

Settlers in the valleys of Sulphur and Harmon Creek were George Washington Farmer, William and Charles J. Wheatley, Samuel and David Benton, Sion and Joseph Melton, Katherine Parker, John Phifer, James and Richard Holland.

Settlers among Big Sandy River and its tributaries were Edward Lindsey, John Pierce, Daniel Buchanan, William and Levin Cottingham, David Watson, John Graham, Aaron Clement, Malcomb McKenzie, Nicholas and Lewis Brewer, Isham Jones, Hezekiah Greer, William Warmack, George McDaniel, and James Craig.

Settlers in the valley of Eagle Creek were William Hubbs (who owned one of the first Tennessee River ferries in the county), Joseph Fry, John Barnett, Caswell Matlock, and James White. In the valley of Birdsong Creek and near Chalk Level were the Hatleys (Sherwood, Edwards, Hardy and Mark), Charles Oatsvall, Anderson Lynch, Molton Merrick, Cullen Luper, William Walker, Joseph Townsend, the Utleys (Abel, Seth and Burwell), George Camp, Elder Obediah Hardin, and John Anderson.

Subject: Re: [SHORT] Larkin Garrett + Charlotte (Lotty Short)

Dear Linda,

I think there are three candidates who could be the father of Charlotte "Lotty" Short who married Larkin Garrett, but it is all based on circumstantial evidence.

1. The first suggestion is Josiah Short, and he is recommended based on proximity to Larkin & Charlotte Garrett on the 1830 census. In 1830 Josiah Short lived three households from Mary Garrett, age 70-80. I don't know anything about this Mary Garrett.

Also in 1830, Larkin Garrett himself lived near Robert Box and Lindley Box. Josiah's wife was Sophia Box (relationship unknown). Nearby was Messer Norton, born 1820-1830. (This is written in the old fashioned script as Meper Norton). Two of Josiah's daughters married Norton brothers, and one, Sophia Short who married William Norton, named a son Messer Lafayette Norton, born 1853 in Tippah County, MS.

The down side to Josiah Short is that his three unidentified daughters were born between 1799-1803, and if the early census records are accurate Charlotte Short, born 1791, is a bit too old to fit one of these daughters.

Also, on the 1850 census in Hardeman County I noticed a Thomas SHORT, born

1805 NC, living only two households from Lotty and Larkin Garrett. He was a Methodist Preacher and Farmer. Based only on early census records, Josiah Short did not have a son in this age bracket, and there is a strong family legend is that he had only the ONE SON, George Washington Short, born 1812. There was surely a close relationship between Lotty Short Garrett and Thomas Short, two households apart.

One curious thing is that living next to Larkin and Lotty Garrett in 1830 is Needham Jackson. They are also close neighbors in 1840. The identity of this Needham Jackson needs to be explored.

2. Another possibility for the father of Charlotte Short is Needham Short. He had four daughters born between 1790-1800 before he left North Carolina, and all are unidentified. Since William and Mary Short Henry named a son Needham Henry, perhaps this suggests a close relationship to Needham Short.

Needham Short had moved to Humphreys County, TN, by 1820, but I have noticed a tendency in the Short family for young men to move near their uncles.
Perhaps the same was true of daughters. Or, perhaps Lotty Short and Larkin Garrett were old and established enough not to follow Needham to Humphreys County.

On the up side, Needham Short did have an unidentified son born 1800-1810, and this fits the Thomas Short, born 1805.

3. Another possibility for the father of Charlotte Short, born 1791, is Sion Short. Sion did have two unidentified daughters and one son born between 1791 and 1800. It is believed that Sion probably had a marriage previous to when he married Dicey Ashe in 1797 in Wake County, NC. This belief is based on the fact that unless he had multiple births, it would be difficult to have three children in two and one-half years.

There is much circumstantial evidence that Sion Short was the father of the man we call Landman Short, III, born 1880-1802. Landman, III, was taxed with Sion Short in Monroe County, KY, for another five years after Josiah Short and Needham Short had moved to Hardeman County, TN

Sion Short died between 1825-1828. and Landman III went to live near his uncle Josiah Short in Hardeman County by 1830. He was indexed as Lenard Short. By 1842 Landman Short, III, was in Lafayette County, MS, where he died.

It is believed that the infant in the 1800 census with Sion Short in Wake County, NC, was Alford Short, who was with Sion on early KY tax records, and he stopped being taxed in 1828. The down side to having Sion Short the father of Charlotte Short is that we do not know of a son born 1805 who could be Thomas Short of the 1850 census in Hardeman County, TN.

I would be interested in seeing the additional information you have discovered. You may correspond with me privately at MaryFernS@aol.com.

RESEARCH AT CLAYTON LIBRARY

Tried to find more about why Peter Read was in contempt for not reporting accounts of orphans of Hector Williams and William Pryse.

Virginia Colonial Absttracts by Beverly Fleet:

3 March 1655:
A probat of the last will and testam't of Wm Pryse dec'd is graunted unto Ann Prise the relict and extrx of the sd Decedt.

Itt is ordered that Ann the extrx of Wm Pryse dec'd shall pay unto Tho: Holford gent, attorn' of the No'thway mer'cht 1000 lb tobbo and cask, with costs, als exec.

4 Octo 1656:
Ann Prise widd Doth give graunt and confirme to her daughter Elizab: Williams one young heyfur named Browning m'ked with a Crop in each eare, and a piece taken out underneath each eare wch she desired to be acknowledged and authenticated by me her Attorney. William Dittie.

15 Sep 1662
Itt is ordered upon the refusal of Peter Read to give security for the estate of the orphants of Hector Williams and Wilm Pryse that the said Read render and deliv'r all the estate into the hands of the sherr of the County....

Peter Read for his contempt and affront to the Co'rt is committed to remayne in the Sherr' custody till hee bee thence delivered by co'rse of the law or the mercy of the Co'rt.

Dif betw Peter Read and Jno Willms to be settled by Mr Antho: Wyatt and Capt Robt Wynne.

CONCLUSIONS: A run of the name William Pryse revealed no pertinent information to above records. Did not run Hector Williams but will at another library visit. It may be that Peter Read married the widow Ann Pryse. That would account for him being liable for giving security for the orphans of his wife Ann and the orphans of her daughter Elizabeth if she is the widow of Hector Williams.

3 Apr 1688, Westopher, Charles City Co., Va – Ann Read granted administration on the estate of her husband, Peter Read.

Notes

Young Short is likely the male age 16-25 shown in the household of his widowed mother, Mary Cole Short, in White Co., TN in 1829. The first certain record, however, for Young Short is in the White Co. Court Records, when he is found on an 1822 list of crews to repair the road, along with his brothers Jonathan and Burrell Jr. Soon after this Young must have left White Co. for Humphries Co., TN, where Young is found listed on p.333 as Younger Short, in 1830. The children in the household are two males under age 5, who would be Lewis and Burrel and one female under age 5, who would be Rebecca Ann. His wife is listed in the age 20-30 age catagory, which would fit, but the only other male in the household is listed as ate 15-20, which could not be Young. Young was either inadvertently omitted from this census, or was marked in the wrong age column. Young's assumed father-in-law, Lewis Barker, was a resident of Humphries [later Benton] Co. TN in 1830 on p. 326, with one male age 70-80 and one female age 50-60. Also on p. 326 a Needham Short is listed [1m -5; 1m 20-30; 1 m 60-70; 1 f 5-10; 1 f 20-30; 1 f 40-50]. Needham Short appears repeatedly in the Wake Co., NC records, beginning in 1793, and it appears likely that he is the uncle of Young Short, and may have been the reason that Young went to Humphries Co. in the first place. Rounding out the possible relatives in Humphries in 1830, is another Lewis Barker on p. 315 and also a Shadrack Short on the same page.

The state census of Tishomingo Co., MS was taken on 20 January 1837. In it is listed a Young Choat, with 4 males and 3 females. This may have been Young Short. Certainly Young was in Tishomingo when he secured a note in the amount of $400.00 owed by W.M. Barker on 15 March 1839. The indenture was secured with the following property: one black mare, one bay mare pony, eleven head of cattle, consisting of cows, yearlings and calves, thirty head of stock hogs, two feather beds & steads of furniture, one chest, one dining table together with all his household and kitchen furniture. The note was due on 15 March 1841. It was signed by young Short with his mark [X] and by M.W. Barker and witnessed by B.C. Reeves.

Young and his family were on the 1840 Tishomingo Federal census: 1 m 5-10 [Jonathan]; 2 m 10-15 [Lewis & Burrel]; 1 m 40-50 [Young]; 2 f -5 [Martha & Lucinda]' 1 f 5-10 [Ann]; 1 f 30-40 [Roda].

Young Short as highest bidder, purchased from the Tishomingo Co. Sheriff, on 08 March 1840, some properaty at Jacinto, one undivided moiety of one half interest that James W. Jenkens had in the southeast quarter of section 28, township 2, range 9 east, to satisfy a debt that Jenkens owed to Young Short for $201.12 including damages and interest.

Young Short is shown on the 1845 Tishomingo County state census, with six males and five females. The males would be Young, Lewis, Burrell, Jonathan, Albert & Calvin; the females would be Roda, Rebecca Ann, Lucinda, Martha Jane & Paralee.

On 02 March 1847 once again Young became the highest bidder at public auction on the property of James W. Jenkens to satisfy the amount of debt owing to Young Short from Jenkins. This time youg purchased Lot no. 6, Block no. 2, Farmington, Tishomingo Co., MS for the sum of $50.00. On the same day action was taken against the undivided interest of James W. Jenkens in a certain piece of land being a part of the southwest quarter of section No. 2, township 2, range 8 east. Judgement was executed in the Circuit court of Tishomingo County on the 17th day of November 1846 in favor of Young Short for $201.17 debt and $56.18 damages. The land was sold at auction to Young Short, the highest bidder for $50.00.

In 1848, on 12 August, Young and Roady Short are shown as selling to Isiah P. Young for sixty five dollars, a tract of land in Tishomingo, formerly the undivided interest of James W. Jenkens to a certain piece of land being a part of the South east quarter of Section two of Township two of Range eight East.

Young and his family are shown on the 1850 Tishomingo Co. census. This census shows Young Short, 53, m, Farmer, $800, NC, can't read & write; Roda, 44, f, TN, can't read & write; Ann, 21, f, TN, at school; Lucinda, 15, f, TN, at school; Martha, 12, f, MS, at school; Albert, 10, m, MS, at school; Calvin, 8, m, MS, at school; Parlee, 6, f, MS, at school; Elizabeth, 4, f, MS, deaf & dumb; James, 2, m, MS, Jonathan, 16, m, TN. Other Shorts in Tishomingo in 1850: B [Burrell] and Lewis, the two older sons of Young & Roda.

Feb. 1, 1856. Tishomingo county, MS. Young and Roda Short sold to Neil Morrison for $870.00, 160 acres of land described as the southeast quarter of section 26, township 2, range 7 east, according to the plan of survey of the Chickasaw cessation of land in the state of Mississippi together with all tenements and appurtenances threreunto belonging. Both Young & Roda made an "X"

February 12, 1856. Tishomingo County, MS. Young and Roda Short sold to M.K. Bostwick & A.F. McRu, for $480.00, a parcel of land in the County of Tishomingo and known in the plan of the Chickasaw Survey in the State o Mississippi as the north half of section 30, township 2, range nine, and the southeast quarter of section 19, township 2, range 2, with all the improvements Thereon. "X"

On the 1860 tax list of Tishomingo Co., Young Short is shown as owning six slaves. Young is not listed in the 1860 Tishomingo Co. census, however.

February 1867: An entry in the estate record by E.W Carmack who was appointed administrator for Young Short states that Young died in February of 1867, "and left no widow". However, a different death date is given below:

December 27, 1867: Tishomingo Co., MS Court Records [LDS film #0895937]

This day came the parties by their Attornies and thereupon the matters of law arising out of the rule to shew cause why the fierifacias in this cause should not be quashed, being solemnly argued it seems to the Court upon the whole matter that the law is for the defendant. Therefore it is considered by the Court that the fierifacias issued by the Justice of the peace in this cause be quashed, that the papers in this cause brough here by a Certiorari shewing that an appeal was prayed for and granted in this cause before the issuing of the Writ of fierifacias aforesaid be set down upon the trial docket, in the same manner as tho the same had been returned, that the defendant recover against the plaintiff his cost by him about his defence in quashing the execution in this behalf expended &c. From which judgement the plaintiff by his Attorney prayed for a writ of Error in the nature of an appeal to remove said cause to the next Circuit Court for White County and to him it is granted provided he enter into bond with security before the rise of the court, otherwise a Writ of fierifacias to issue for the collection of the cost.

1. Title: Dear Grant,I mailed a packet to you on Friday, which will perhaps reach you tomorrow.Which child of Zachariah Barker do you descend from? Do you know the maiden name of Zachariah's wife, Celia? To me, all evidence points to the likelihood that she was a SHORT, daughter of Needham Short.Needham Short was the son of Landman Short of Wake Co., NC. Landman had several daughters and four other sons: Sion, Burrell [Burwell], Josiah & Landman Jr. Burrell Short was the father of my husband's 2nd great grandfather, Young Short, who married Roda Barker. As I wrote to you before, I think Roda was a sister of your Zachariah Barker.About 1804 Needham Short, with other family members, left Wake Co., NC & went of Barren Co., KY. Your Celia [?] Barker, according to the census, was born in 1804 IN KENTUCKY. On the 1810 Barren Co. census, Needham Short has [among other children] two females under 10.Needham Short & his brother, Josiah left Kentucky about 1815. In 1820, Needham Short was living right next door to Lewis Barker in Humphreys, TN. Josiah Short lived a few households away. Needham Short has [among others], one female age 10-16.The Short & Barker families were neighbors back in Wake Co., NC and possibly already had an extended family relationship in the past. There was a Burwell Barker in Wake Co., NC, of the same generation as Lewis Barker. Burwell Barker was not Lewis' brother, but likely was a relative. Was Burrell [Burwell] Short, brother of Needham Short, named for this Burwell

Barker?In 1830 Needham Short is still residing in Humphreys, TN, a short distance from Lewis Barker. Young[er] Short is also here, married with three young children under the age of 10.The clincher here, though, is that Zachariah and Celia Barker named their second son, Needham. There are over a dozen Barker men, listed in Wake Co., NC--none of them are named, Needham. It seems logical to assume that Needham Barker was named for someone in Celia's family--I believe this someone was Celia's father, Needham Short.If I have this figured out correctly, Celia [Short?] Barker and Young Short were first cousins. They married siblings: Celia Short[?] married Zachariah Barker and Roda Barker married Young Short. A much later death certificate of one of Roda's children, gave Roda's maiden name as Barker.While all of this does not prove that Celia Barker was a daughter of Needham Short, nothing found so far rules out that relationship.Marilyn

A WEST TENNESSEE SUPREME COURT CASE

In 1815, EDMUNDS BARKER, Sr. of Wake County, North Carolina bequeathed a slave, RACHEL, to his daughter, Prisciller, wjfe of Brittain Barker; after her demise this slave was to descend to her sons Briggs, Sterling and Hosea Barker. Brittain Barker and family moved to Tennessee and in 1834 he sold Ned, Rachel's son, to Zachary Barker. (Benton County Deed Book B, page 255) Years later, in 1846, Sterling Barker of Ballard County, Kentucky and Young Barker of Shelby County, Tennessee made a claim on Ned. Briggs and Hosea Barker of the latter county appointed Young Barker as their representative to secure their claim on this slave also. (IBID. pages 334, 336) Zachary Barker apparently acted in good faith when he purchased the slave, unaware of the condition of Edmunds Barker's will. He and the other Barkers went into court where it was decided against Zachary Barker as the entries in the SUPREME COURT MINUTE BOOK, 1841-1850 reveal:

As legal representative, Young Barker sold Ned, about 34 years old, to Anderson Lashlee, a Camden merchant (and security for Zachary Barker in his legal hassle), for $550 on June 6, 1849. It was noted in the deed that Ned had "run away. "(Benton County Deed Book C, page 157) Of course, Zachary Barker and his merchant-friend had agreed to pay the heirs for the slave, sub rosa, while they kept Ned safely out of sight until everything had settled down. Ned lived on the Barker farmstead for many years.

Landman Short Sr

Landman Short, Sr., born ca. 1737, served in the Edgecombe County, NC, Militia in the 1750's, patented 700 acres in Johnston County, NC, in 1762, and appeared on Wake County, NC records from 1771 until 1804. Between December 1778 and April 1780 Landman acquired 1,880 acres in Wake County. He transferred several parcels of land to men believed to be his adult children. The particular deed book for this time period has been lost, but the index to the deed book has survived, mentioning only the names of grantor and grantee. In May of 1802, Landman Short (Sr.) transferred land to Josiah, Needham, and Burwell Short, proved by Nathaniel Jones. In November of 1804 Landman Short, Sr., transferred land to Landman Short, Jr., proved by George Crowder. In 1797 Landman Short (Sr.) served as security for the second marriage of Sion Short. Based on these documents, is assumed that the sons Landman Short, Sr., were Sion Short, Needham Short, Josiah Short, Burwell/Burrel Short, and Landman Short, Jr. All but Burrel Short, who went to White County, TN, were in Barren County, KY, by 1810. There is some evidence that Landman Sr. may have lived long enough to accompany his sons to Barren County, KY, because an early Tax List (about 1807-1811) in Barren County, KY, exempts one Landman Short from paying taxes. Exemptions were usually given to persons of advanced age.

Burrell Short Sr

Burwell Short, born ca. 1772-1774, was the only son of Landman Short, Sr. who went to Tennessee instead of going to Kentucky. Burwell married Mary Cole by 1793 in North Carolina. Mary is probably the daughter named Mary who was mentioned in the will of John Cole in 1803 in Wake County, NC. John Cole did not mention the last names of his seven daughters, but the one named Milberry / Milbry was already the mother of six children and the widow of John Traywick by 1801, and remarried to William Short in 1804. The William Short who married Mrs. Milbry Cole Traywick was born by ca. 1775, and is thought to be the son of William Short (Sr.) born by 1750, who also lived in Wake County, NC. This William Short, Sr. died in 1795 in Chatham County, NC, where his will was proved, and he did leave a son named William Short. Because of the Wake County interaction between the families of William Short, Sr., born ca. 1750, and Landman Short, Sr., b. ca. 1737, it is believed that they were closely related.

Upon leaving North Carolina, Burwell went to White County, TN. He appears to have changed the spelling of his given name to Burrell. His death in 1810 in White County, TN, at about age 37, left Mary with six fatherless children between the ages of one and 14. Mary died after 1850 in White County.

eight living children. If Jacob Goodman had lived in this day no doubt he would have been a staunch advocate of maximum price controls, for the proper feeding and clothing of a family of this number would have taxed the incomes of several average citizens.

Our amiable citizens: Joe, Charlie and Will Goodman are great grand sons of Jacob Goodman. Their good citizenship, church and family devotion needs no commendation from the writer, they are well known by the citizens of Barren County and Glasgow.

THE SHORT FAMILY

Josiah and Lanmon Short, are the earliest members of this family that we have knowledge of. Their names are found among the Trustees of James Town (Fountain Run), as early as 1816. There was and is a numerous family of this name living throughout the Southern section of Barren County.

We find Josiah Short was Lieutenant in the 8th Co First Regiment, Kentucky Mounted Militia commanded by Lieut. Col. Samuel Caldwell, in the War 1812-15. The Capt. of the 8th. Co. was Hugh Brown, who has been previously referred to as living in the vicinity of Fountain Run.

Lanmon Short married Elizabeth, daughter of Samuel and Caterener Carpenter, March 18th, 1810. Lanmon's first home was on a tract of 270 acres at the point where Indian Creek flows into Big Barren River. In deed Book G, page 520, Barren County Court Records, we find under date of December 29th, 1819, where Lanmon purchases this acreage from Charlie and Elizabeth Flanagan of Madison County, Kentucky which is described as follows "On which the said Short now lives, being a part of a military survey made in the name of Thomas Reynolds." It is further described as "Beginning near the mouth of Indian Creek and down the river with its meanders." Lanmon appears to have been one of the outstanding men in his community; he was Justice of the Peace as early as 1814 and active in civic affairs. His name, in various capacities, appear in many of the early documents recorded in the County Court Clerk's office, at Glasgow.

I find no record of Lanmon and Josiah after Monroe County was created in 1820. It is assumed their homes were in the new county.

EARLY ROADS IN SOUTHERN BARREN COUNTY

[Apr. 8, 1948 THE GLASGOW TIMES]

It is believed advisable to identify, as far as possible from the meager records available, the early roads traversing the southern section of the county as they will be referred to from time to time.

The first roads were little more than cleared right-of-ways through the dense forest. As a rule they were thirty feet wide, but the cleared portion only wide enough to permit the passage of vehicles. Most of them have been abandoned. The deep channels cut by the steel tired vehicles through fields and over hills are often drawn to our attention by the older citizens living in the communities through which they passed.

Probably the first road leading to the southwest from Glasgow was known as the "Glasgow and Gallatin road." It followed US Highway 31E to Prichardsville, thence over the Oil Well road to Cedar Grove church and school, thence across Skeggs Creek at what is now known as the Renfro bridge, thence continuing southerly to Caney Fork creek at the Old Mosby farm.. where our good citizen Jake Mosby grew to manhood... thence by the name of the late Harvey Hamilton, crossing Peter Creek at the Old Jones Mill (where Loammi Whitney erected a mill in 1827). Thence in an almost direct line to Brown's Ford on Big Barren River, crossing the Warehouse road a few feet East of the Methodist Church at Tracy. I have made no attempt to identify this road from Brown's Ford to Gallatin. Although this road is not extensively used by others than the citizens living along its course it is frequently referred to by older persons as the Gallatin road.

Second in importance to the Glasgow and Gallatin road was the road leading from Tompkinsville via the old brick house on East Fork creek.... where John D. Turner lived during the nineties... through the present village of Emberton, thence by the Old Harmony Church to Pikeville, thence by the homes of Wyley James and Green Simmons, where Cap Simmons now lives, intersecting the present Fountain Run and Austin road where Jay Hunt now resides. This road was known as the Tompkinsville, Pikeville and Gallatin road. I have been unable to identify it further than the home of Jay Hunt; where it followed the present Fountain Run and Austin road to Tracy or took some other course at Mr. Hunt's I have been unable to learn. Much of this road has been abandoned.

Probably from the stand point of accommodating a larger number of pioneers living in the southern section of the county, the Glasgow and church buildings from the original log house to the present substantial brick edifice. In fact a division in the church in recent years culminated in the erection of an additional modern building. These imposing places of worship reflect much credit to a community with only four or five hundred population.

Like many of the other early churches the original minutes have been lost sight of. The earliest records now available date from "2nd Saturday in October 1852." In this old record book some early clerk has taken the time to enter under date of "September 15th, 1855, the following "List of members names now belonging to his Church" which is as follows: Nancy Simmons, Mary Murphy, Nancy Murphy, W. J. Simmons, Patsy Hunt, Joseph Stephens, Jacob Goodman, Nancy Stephens, Thos. Simmons, Mary Simmons, Jacob I. Goodman, Violet a black woman, Mary Simmons, Moses Campbell, A. P. Dorsey, Martha Marrow, Mary McIntyre, John Carter, K. K. Dorsey, Eleanor Charter (probably Carter), Luzaney Murphy, Princella Carter, Mary Ann Campbell, Sarah Wooley, Linda Bishop, Margaret Russell, Mary D. Celsor, Nancy Goodman, Elizabeth Neal, Elizabeth Hagan, Nancy Pardue, Elizabeth Tinsley, Ann G. Dossey, Jeremiah M. Dossey, Rachel Neal, Margaret Fletcher, Mary Neal, Levi Lancaster, J. B. Hunt, Joseph Dorsey, Permilla Simmons, Jefferson Celsor, Francis Russell, William J. Dossey, John G. Simmons, Joseph Barlow, Mary Lee, Mary Lamira Flippin, Mary Jane Walbert, Sarah Lee, Mary Shockley, Malinda Lee, Sarah E. Murphy, Eliza Murphy, Mary Samples, Elizabeth Benedict, Elizabeth Bagwell, Catherine Dossey, Joseph Jones, Nacy Simmons, K. D. Dossey and Thomas Shockley.

This early record also reveals that the following ministers had the pastoral care of the church for 1852 until about 1880: Isaac Tracy, Thomas Scrivner, K. D. Dossey, T. Manion, Wm. Semands, M. F. Ham, F. M. Stone and John Petterson.

It has been avowed intention of the writer to include in these articles, well grounded tradition and recorded facts, without coloring or fanciful additions... in other words to use a modern expression, to call a spade a spade. Amongst so much good unfolded there must be a little bad. It appears that fate has decreed that a small portion of the bad was the lot of his great-grandfather, Naysa Simmons, in his relation to the Fountain Run church. A story is told, which comes from an unimpeachable source, a grand-son, who is now in his eighties, Henry C. (Cap) Simmons, which is about as follows: In the latter years of his life, Naysa, it appears, became addicted to over indulgence in the flowing bowl. Now it can be easily imagined the perturbed condition that prevailed among the active church members... that a brother who had, in part, been responsible for the organization and early shepherding of the flock, should fall a victim of strong drink. He was haled before the church tribunal to account for his transgressions. While there is no record to show, his plea for tolerance appears to have been unconvincing, as he was expelled. This action of the church seems to have been a blow to his sense of personal dignity. After some reflection of his past conduct he probably came to the conclusion that "Err is human" and that the church governing board would probably review his case if warranted by his conduct. After a short period of absence from the church premises he would return and sit on the door step during the services; a picture of dejection, humility, repentance. His conduct bore fruit his case was re-considered and he was restored to fellowship. After restoration his conduct would be exemplary for some time, but the forces of evil would eventually lay low his resistance, and he would again fall. The church would go into action and render a verdict as stated above. After being repeated some three or four times the tribunal decided that no action of theirs could remedy the situation and that he being a man of integrity, uprightness, and a good citizen from all other standpoints, his name could remain on the church record unmolested.

FOUNTAIN RUN

[Apr. 1, 1948 THE GLASGOW TIMES]

The little village of Fountain Run is only a short two miles from the Barren-Monroe county line. As this community was originally in Barren County I can not forego the urge to include what little I have learned from research relating to it's early history.

The following is found in Deed Book #4, page 233, Barren County Court records "Nov. County Court 1816, On application of Jacob Goodman Sr. and it appearing to the satisfaction of the Court that notice has been given at the Court house door two months and published in an authorized newspaper twice a month for three months successively previous to this application, it is ordered that the title of fifty acres of land in Barren County on which a town is proposed to be established now owned by said Goodman, and when laid off shall be vested in Walter Caruth, Wm. Kerr, Joshiah Short, John Austin, and Lanmon Short, Trustees of said town, and it is further ordered that the said town established as aforesaid be known by the name of James Town whereupon it is ordered that the said Jacob Goodman Sr., entered a bond with Wm. Moore, John Austin and Lanmon Short in the sum of one thousand pounds conditioned as the Law directs." Tradition has it that the town was so named because a majority of the pioneers living in the neighborhood bore the given names James.

Research has failed to reveal just when the name of the little town was changed from Jimtown to Fountain Run. The latter name is intriguing and affords speculation for the inquisitively inclined. Again I shall quote a tradition. A small ravine runs parallel with main street through the town. A small stream of "Run" fed by springs along it's course flows at the bottom of the ravine. It is claimed that during extended rainy periods these springs assume fountain proportions, gushing several inches above the surface of the earth, or was the fanciful dream of a later citizen is unknown, but I still contend it is intriguing.

It has been difficult to determine just who the original settlers around Fountain Run were. What might be alluded to as the second wave of immigrants brought the families of Naysa Simmons, Parker Dossey, the Stephenses, the Campbells, the Morrows, and others whose names I now fail to recall. My fathers biography appearing in a Kentucky History indicates that they came in 1805. At this time the mode of travel had progressed to wagon and teams instead of horseback and pack animals used by the first comers, whose course was guided over the Indian trails by scouts skilled in the art of wood-craft and whose sense of direction had developed to unbelievable accuracy.

It has not been ascertained just when the post office was established at Fountain Run, nor the name of the original postmaster. Henry C. Franklin was postmaster as early as 1862; his incumbency continued until the late eighties. He was also engaged in the mercantile business there as early as 1856.

Milton J. Goad and James M. Simmons opened a general store there immediately after the Civil War, under the firm name of Simmons & Goad. They continued in business for only a short period, probably three or four years. The building which they conducted their business was occupied by B. W. Downing's Drug Store at the time of the disastrous fire in the little village about 1936 or 38, at which time it was destroyed.

SAMUEL CARPENTER

Samuel Carpenter, a North Carolinian, was another pioneer to push forward into the wilderness and open a settlement on Big Barren river. His holdings, which appear to have been of considerable acreage, joined that of Sylvester Hall, presumably on the south side of the river.

A paragraph in his will, dated March 13th, 1811, reveals the state of his nativity, which reads as follows: "Also I do give unto my Executors to make sale of all my land in North Carolina in Rutherford Co. if not sold by my brother Joseph Carpenter and if sold by him the sale to stand good as if done by myself." This will recorded in Will Book 1, page 133, Barren County Court records, indicates that he was possessed of a large estate. He bequeaths many slaves to his children and a certain number of shillings to each. The names of his children - at the time the will was written - were: Susannah Lattimore, Sallie Lattimore, Margaret Orr, Barbery Shatle, Elizabeth Short, Fanny Green Carpenter and an only son Samuel E. Carpenter. He seemed to favor the son more than the daughters, giving him $350.00 in cash and "the land that I now live on" and his rifle gun.

The witnesses to his will were John Brothers, Abraham Campbell, Jacob Goodman and his neighbor Sylvester Hall. The will was probated at the May term of Court 1811. His wife, Catherine, and his son-in-law, Landmon Short, were joint executors.

ABSALOM HUGHES

[Mar. 25, 1948 THE GLASGOW TIMES]

Absolom Hughes was born in Charles City County, Virginia. He was early a staunch supporter of the Colonies in their fight for independence as evidenced by his enlistment on October 1775 in Charles City County. He maintained his home in Charles City county until 1784, when he moved to Halifax County in the same state. On August 29th, 1814, he purchased 1000 acres of land from Benjamin Green of the same county for $1,000.00 Currency of the United States, which is described as lying on Indian Creek "in the county of Barren formerly Warren". The deed of conveyance, recorded in Book D, page 276 reveals that Elizabeth Mudy was the original owner "by virtue of a Military Land Warrant issued to her as heiress of Edward Mudy Dec'd."

Immediately after the purchase of the acreage referred to Mr. Hughes moved to Barren County and built his home at the crossing of the Tompkinsville, Pikeville and Scottsville road and the road leading from Glasgow to Hall's Ferry. This point was know in the early days as Hughes' Cross Roads. Mr. Jay Hunt now resides near the site of the old Hughes home. Further evidence of the location is found in the old "Stray Book" under date of October 17th, 1821, wherein this entry is made: "Taken up by Absalom Hughes (certain live stock) living 20 miles south of Glasgow, on the road leading from Glasgow to Hall's Ferry on Big Barren River.
